

Benefits

With continued growth since 1991, IACP NetSM includes expanded resources for today's law enforcement leaders including databases of best practices, policies, solutions, and forms, networking and peer-to-peer information exchange tools, time sensitive information and opportunities, portals to resources outside of IACP Net, and multimedia resources. End users, their departments, and the communities they serve benefit from IACP Net by building on what's already working and the knowledge of law enforcement leaders from across the nation and worldwide.
